SARANDE (ALBANIA)

Saranda or Sarandë is a town and municipality in Vlorë County, southern Albania. It is one of the most important tourist attractions of the Albanian Riviera. It is situated on an open sea gulf of the Ionian Sea in the central Mediterranean, about 14 km east of the north end of the Greek island of Corfu. Sarandë has a Greek minority and is considered one of the two centers of the Greek community in Albania.

DUBROVNIK (CROATIA)

Dubrovnik is the fortified pearl of the Adriatic – the city for all seasons. It's known for its distinctive Old Town, encircled with massive stone walls completed in the 16th century. Its well-preserved buildings range from baroque (St. Blaise Church) to Renaissance (Sponza Palace and Gothic Rector's Palace). Paved with limestone, the pedestrianized Stradun (or Placa) is lined with shops and restaurants.

VENICE (ITALY)

The city of Venice is built on one hundred and seventeen small islands and has one hundred and fifty canals connected with four hundred and nine bridges and although it looks small, it isn't. During a visit to Venice it's really worth to wonder the squares and lose yourself in the mysterious streets and to admire the beauty of the place.

VENICE, ITALY

BARI (ITALY)

Situated in the "heel" of this boot-shaped country, Bari is famous for its beaches, old town and fabulous food. The surrounding area of Puglia is home to many intriguing attractions, such as the unusual conical "trullo" houses that are scattered across this landscape and the mysterious Sassi caves in the atmospheric troglodyte town of Matera.

KATAKOLON (GREECE)

Katakolon is a small holiday port town in Ilia, western Greece. Known as the gateway to Olympia. Katakolon lies just east of the ancient city of Olympia, the birthplace of the famous Olympic Games. This really is a destination for all and everyone will come away with a greater understanding of the ancient Hellenic civilizations.

MYKONOS (GREECE)

Mykonos is an island in the Cyclades group in the Aegean Sea. It's popularly known for its summer party atmosphere. Beaches such as "Paradise" and "Super Paradise" have bars that blare thumping music. Massive dance clubs attract world-renowned DJs and typically stay open well past dawn. Iconic landmarks include a row of 16th-century windmills, which sit on a hill above Mykonos town.
